

20 Tips for Successful Homeschooling

YOU'VE GOT THIS, MAMA! BREATHE!

The relationship is more important than the curriculum.

Give time to adjust.
Go slow.

Be flexible. Try different approaches.

Boost strengths and nurture weaknesses.

Routine routine routine = sanity.

Know your limits.
Ask for help.

Have fun. Laughter is medicine.

Playing is learning!
It's important for development.

Read together every day.

Don't compare yourself with other families or public school.

Just because it's hard, doesn't mean it's wrong or failing.
It's WORTH it.

Don't be too hard on yourself. You're doing great mama!

You CAN'T do it alone. Talk to friends.

A little bit EVERY day goes a really, really long way!

The quality of study matters far more than the quantity.

Remember your WHY.

It's okay to switch things up now and then.

You are a loving, caring parent. You're good enough.

Take time for yourself to breathe, reflect and review.

Celebrate the small milestones, even mistakes are lessons.